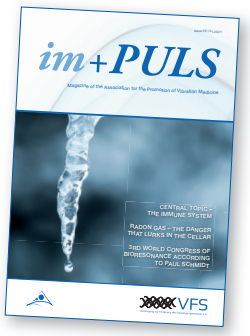
Information leaflet

Goals of the Association

The association, founded in 1999, has set itself the goal of focusing excessively to promote science and research, education and training in the field of vibrational medicine and related diagnostic and therapeutic procedures. Furthermore, a forum is to be created where therapists, patients and persons interested in medical topics can exchange experience and information.

The association pursues exclusively charitable purposes in accordance with German tax regulations.

Activities of the Association



- ✓ Regular publication of the Association's magazine „im+PULS" several times a year. It serves as a medium of information for our members and contains contributions from active members, the managing committee and renowned researchers, mainly in the area of vibrational medicine.
- ✓ Supporting and promoting research projects for dowsing and vibrational medicine.
- ✓ Direct exchange of ideas and experience through regular meetings of the members in their regional user groups.
- ✓ Research and development of green building.
- ✓ Carrying out an annual congress with changing topics and lectures of internationally known experts.

Membership

The association offers an active membership. The annual membership fee is 60,00 EUR. If you join before the annual congress, you will be charged the full membership fee, if you join after the congress, you will pay only half the fee. Spouse and partner in life community will always pay 30,00 EUR per year.

Members participate in all actions of the association and have the option to publish their own reports in the magazine. For some seminars there will be perks according to respective negotiations.

Our members are ...

Natural health practitioners, both for humans and animals | doctors | veterinarians | building biologists | health advisers | biological analysts therapists | kinesiologists | individuals interested in vibrational medicine.

The Association has more than 1.000 members, mostly in Germany. However, we also have many members from Austria, Switzerland, Belgium, the Czech Republic, Great Britain, Sweden, the Netherlands, Luxemburg, Italy, Ireland and France. Outside of Europe, we have at present members from Japan, Canada, the US and Australia.
